Hebrews 13:20-21
June 30, 2019

Hebrews is a sermon, and every good sermon ends with a prayer. Our author ends his sermon by appealing to God to fit us with all we need to do God's will. Then he appeals to the readers to respond in praise. This prayer is no ordinary petition; it is loaded from beginning to end with profound theology. This is why we need to hear a sermon on a prayer. Do you see a pattern for your personal prayers here? I hope so.

Main Idea: Because God graciously gives us everything we need to endure the Christian life, we ought to gladly do His will.

There are four attributes of God mentioned in this prayer even before gets to the request!

God's Peace v20

Sure, God's peace brings harmony to your relationships. But think of all the stories in the NT where Jesus restores order to individuals whose lives are in utter chaos.

God's Power v20

God is all-powerful (omnipotent). He brings the dead back to life!

God's Protection v20

God is our great Shepherd who oversees our beginning, our end and everything in between.

God's Pledge v20

Covenants stipulate the conditions of a relationship. God's pledge: "I will be their God, and they will be My people." Jeremiah 31:33.
