

Too Late for Jezebel

Revelation 2:18-29

August 18, 2019

The fourth letter to the seven churches in Revelation is addressed to Thyatira. Serious Bible readers remember the name Lydia who was from Thyatira. Lydia was converted under Paul's ministry in Acts 16. This letter is twelve verses long making it the longest of the seven.

Main Idea: Purity matters to God; don't overestimate your power to resist sin.

Commendable Contributions to Kingdom 2:18-19

The church as a whole was actually doing more than they did when they first joined the church.

Observations of Some Sketchy Church Members 2:20-24

God searches the mind and the heart of His people; He is a jealous God.

It was too late for Jezebel; she had a sickness unto death.

Enormous Authority Promised to Overcomers 2:25-29

Revelation 20:4-6 speaks of an age where overcomers in the church will exercise authority. These overcomers could be the priests of God in the Millennium.

The morning star is Jesus Himself v28.
