

Wake Up Church

Revelation 3:1-6
August 25, 2019

The fifth letter to the seven churches in Revelation is addressed to Sardis. Indicated by the five imperative verbs, this letter is by far the most severe in disapproval of the seven.

Main Idea: God wants you to grow and to change; wake up out of your spiritual slumber.

3:1 Reputation or Reality, Christ Knows!

Here's a cold shower reality of a church in spiritual decline. These church members had declined to the point that nothing significant was happening in their spiritual life.

3:2-3 A Vivid Picture of Unanticipated Tragedy

The city of Sardis had a reputation for not watching out for themselves. Wake up, Christ will return like a thief in the night.

3:4-6 White Garments for the Saints Who Never Slumber

Sardis was the center of the dyeing industry. Every citizen would have recognized dirty garments. What do you think clean garments are indicative of in these verses?

Wake Up Church Revelation 3:1-6

Response

Nothing But The Blood

Why does the pastor feel like catechisms are important?

First, because I am obedient to my call t o teach the church (2 Timothy 4:2). The catechisms teach us Christian doctrine and application.

Second, because I honor the tried and true methods of the Puritans. They are the California Redwoods, the spiritual giants of the Christian faith. Catechism, questions and answers regarding Christian doctrine, was the preferred method for spiritually building up the people of God.

Catechism is not Catholic terminology, but a Christian method to guard against false teaching.
