God at Work in You

Philippians 1:1-11

Sermon in a Sentence: God is not finished with you; so keep your eyes peeled for the best way to live until Christ returns.

4 glaring evidences that God is at work in you and your church:

1. Citizenship v1

What is a saint?

The six-toed cats at Hemmingway's home in Key West, Florida.

2. Partnership v5

Lydia in Acts 16 is an example of partnership with Paul.

Be a thankful Christian; don't forget to say thank you to people who help you.

3. Relationship v9

The church at Philippi was healthy.

Yet it seems obvious that some were not moving on to spiritual maturity.

4. Workmanship vv10-11

These verses express what God requires of you while He is at work in you.

- a. Carefully scrutinize the way you are going in life.*
- b. Be an open book to people. No mixture of hypocrisy so as to trip others up.*

CHURCH FAMILY

I want to make you aware of a resource that I believe will enhance your study experience as we work through two letters of Paul, Philippians in November and December, and Ephesians coming up in January and February. Crossway Publishing offers a small journal in the ESV with the Scripture on one page and an empty page for journaling notes etc. They are around $6 each on Amazon. Here is the ISBN for the Ephesians journal: 13: 978-1-4335-6094-1. You can find the Philippians journal on Amazon as well. These journals are excellent for Scripture memory, for recording prayers as you go along, for take-away's on certain texts, or one-on-one discussions with each other. I hope you will consider buying one for the next two series I plan to preach. They also fit nicely into your Bible so you will not lose them.
