Isaiah 61:1-4

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

We return today to the Old Testament. This time to the most obvious of places to see best the Visions of Christ. Prepared to return to Jerusalem, the people need a miracle. They need some good news quickly. Their city is ruined, their temple burned to the ground, no king rules over them, and there is no money to rebuild. They themselves are in need of repair and desperate for restoration. For me, Israel stands as a gloomy portrait of humanity exiled without a Savior. So, God sends Good News for the Humble!

Sermon in a Sentence: The good news is here, restoration is underway; get in on God's promises.

The Authority of the Servant

He is God's property, equipped for use by the Holy Spirit.
