Church Family,

This year's Fall Festival will be a bit different, in a good way. Since no one responded in time to spearhead the Festival on October 30, from 6-8p.m., I believe God wants us to take another approach.

Instead of food, drinks, and games that have not yielded any Sunday morning fruit, I want us to focus on a Gospel-Centered Festival. All those involved in the past are encouraged to decorate their trunks or truck beds with a Bible story theme. The Trunkers should be encouraged to decorate their trunk with the theme of a story they choose and share the Bible Story to the children who come by. For example, Jonah 2. Jonah is in the belly of the great fish when he cries out to God for deliverance, and God hears his prayer. Imagine your trunk decorated as a great big fish mouth and a little prophet named Jonah inside. You will have approximately 3 minutes to tell your Jonah story. Consider Luke 24:1-7, the Empty Tomb scene! Imagine decorating your trunk as an empty tomb and telling that story in 3 minutes to the children!

I would like 20 Trunkers that are willing to be different and Gospel-centered this year.

If you can be a Trunker and you are willing to decorate to a Bible story, Please RSVP Pastor Kelly or church office by 9.22.21.

Do You Get the Point?

Matthew 13:44-50

Sunday, September 12, 2021

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Interpreting a parable is like interpreting a joke. A joke is only funny to those who get it. So it is with a parable; it has meaning only to those who are on the inside of the Kingdom of God. If you understand these parables, then God has given you supernatural understanding and is calling for a response.

Sermon in a Sentence: The Kingdom of Heaven is God's gift to those who hear Him; don't just sit there, get into the Kingdom.

13:44 An Unexpected Discovery

Notice the man's response.

13:45-46 A Successful Search

An extravagant discovery calls for an extravagant response!

13:47-50 A Gracious Invitation into the Kingdom to All Sorts of People

Don't miss the M_____ of God here warning all sorts of people of the catastrophic results of rejecting Christ.
