Church,

While we work through 1 John together, please consider reading the letter in its entirety every day until we finish in December. This kind of pouring over and into the Word will saturate your soul with Scripture. Moreover, you will have a much better grip on John's letter than most church members. Maturity is what we are after!
Keep On,
Pastor Kelly-

Fury Exchanged for Favor

1 John 2:1-6

Sunday, November 14, 2021

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Sermon in a Sentence: Since Jesus absorbed the fury God intended for us, we can show our genuine love for Him by our obedience to Him.

2:1-2 Christians who grow careless and sin have a Helper who will speak to the Father on their behalf.

2:3-5a Christians who keep God's Words can be assured they are safe and spiritually maturing.

2:5b-6 Christians who will not walk out on Christ but walk like Christ can be assured they are in His family.

Key words to remember:

Advocate- verse 1, means one who is called alongside to help (see Jn, 14-16).

Propitiation- verse 2, only used four times in the entire Bible. Means a sacrifice that turns God's fury into favor.

Keep- verse 3, means to guard or to protect.

Perfected- verse 5, means spiritually matured, not perfectly sinless.

Walk- verse 6, means ethical conduct or moral lifestyle.
