Asleep in the Dust

Daniel 12:1-4

Sunday, February 13, 2022

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Throughout his life in Babylon, Daniel never lost hope in the promises of God. By the time we get to Daniel 12 we are listening to a wise 80-year-old Daniel who is engaged in a prophetic conversation with the angel Gabriel.

Gabriel's message includes four groups of people then and now:

12:1 Those Whose Name is in the Book

The prophecy sets the mood of the message; hope awaits the faithful!

12:2 Those Who Sleep in the Dust

This verse allows us to draw several conclusions about our resurrection.

12:3 Those Who Are Wise

Be wise and inspire others to trust in the Messiah, Christ.

12:4 Those Who Run to and Fro

As the end approaches, some will run this way and that way away from God. Others will seek to know more and more about Him.

Sermon in a Sentence: Don't lose hope; God rescues those whose faith lasts under pressure.
