Explore First Baptist Church Alba: is a tool catered for candidates interested in membership at First Baptist Alba. Please be in attendance Wednesday night, April 13 to approve the material. The curriculum acquaints us with member candidates and thoroughly supplies them with what is expected from an FBCA member.

Wednesday Nights at FBCA: We are experiencing a particular move of the Holy Spirit in Wednesday night Bible Study. Attendance is phenomenal and discussions are engaging. If you have a hunger to grow, please consider regularly attending the study of 1 Corinthians, Called to Be Saints Together; the Makings of a Healthy Church, Wednesdays in the sanctuary at 6pm.

Thank you, Ken and Kay McCall: I knew the minute I heard Ken teach he would be my SS teacher. Ken believes in Expository Teaching and Preaching. Ken is like a skilled artist who studies his subject, then carefully crafts his impressions. He is an exemplary husband who honors his wife and exhibits the love of Christ to her. Kay is the teacher’s pet, taking diligent notes and eyeing her teacher like a giddy schoolgirl. She is an excellent wife who anchors her daily hope in Christ. Together they have weathered the storms of the Christian life; a couple who puts their faith to work in the face of adversity. I will miss Ken and Kay McCall. I will miss Kay’s thought-provoking questions in Wednesday night Bible Study. I will pine for Ken’s laser-focused attention on Sunday mornings, and long to hear his contagious Georgia vernacular. Keep On Ken and Kay!

Dear FBCA Family,

Our Silent Sunday Fundraiser raised over $1,000 this year which was less than previous years but still a major success compared to most of our other fundraisers. Thank you for your support and generosity. We have one more fundraiser approaching on Easter Sunday, April 17th. We will be having our annual Silent Dessert Auction where you can pick up some delicious goodies made by our youth (or most likely their better baker parents). This dessert auction will be ongoing throughout Sunday School and briefly following Sunday Morning Service. We do not plan to keep you long from your families on Easter Sunday so we will be calling the auction at about 10 minutes after service so make sure you get your fat pants and fat wallets ready because some of these desserts go for more than a few arms and legs.

I also want to inform you of what the youth will be studying coming up. Currently on Wednesday nights, the youth have been studying through the Gospel of Mark. This has been a great study because many of our students have missed out on some of the stories and lessons found in the gospels. Going through an entire gospel has helped give a better understanding of the story and the life of Jesus. Our next study will be a series of discussions over various “difficult” topics that we all tend to shy away from talking about. Our youth are bombarded with a world of sins today like Sexual Immorality, Identity through Race, and much more. While we Christians often argue with one another or with other adults with no reservations, sometimes we shy away from the hard talks with our children. Our youth need to hear a biblical perspective on what they are seeing and hearing everyday so that they can be better informed and more stable in their faith for the years to come. Please join me in praying for this series so that we can begin a change in this generation of youth here in Alba.

Thank you for all your support,
Zachary Littleton & FBCA’s Youth
