Leave the Bottle Behind!
Hebrews 6:1-12

Sunday, October 30, 2022
Dr. Kelly B. Burton

I still remember the smell of pine rosin that we sprayed on our hands before a football game. The pine rosin helped us get a better grip on the football. In Hebrews 4 the writer reminded the church of the importance of holding on to the Christian confessions. Today, in Chapter 6 he encourages the church to not get sluggish and move on to the better things of salvation that await us.

Sermon in a Sentence: Because God wants you to receive your rewards, leave the bottle behind and start plumbing the depths of the Bible.

6:1-3 The Church Has an Assignment

Here are six fundamental beliefs that baptized believers learned in the first Century.

“And this we will do if God permits” 6:3.

6:4-6 God Has a Deadline

This the third of five warning passages in Hebrews.
Consider Numbers 14.
