Running to Our Reward

Hebrews 12:1-4

Sunday, December 4, 2022

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Reading through the 'Hall of Faith' in Hebrews 11, I am encouraged because not one of those heroes had a perfect faith; they had their flaws. Picture that massive crowd of saints standing and cheering you on to your reward. More important to the author of Hebrews, keep your eyes fixed on Jesus and you will breast the tape at the finish line.

Sermon in a Sentence: It is easy to tire out in the Christian life; run the course God gave you fixed on your Champion, Jesus.

1. Lay Aside Every Sin That Tangles You Up

*No one should expect to win who is not
D _____.*

2. Let Each of Us Run with Endurance the Course God Gave Us

*No athlete should expect to win who is not
D _____.*

3. Looking to Your Champion So That You Don't Give Up

*No Christian should expect to win who is not
D _____.*
