The Christian's Permanent Helper

John 16:1-15

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

The Farewell Promises of Jesus continue in the Upper Room discourse. In this chapter, Jesus promised to send His followers a Holy Helper. They should not be filled with anxiety about the hard times ahead and fall away like their ancestors in the Exodus. When Jesus atoned for our sins and ascended to the Father, He divinely dispatched the Holy Spirit to earth.

Sermon in a Sentence: The World hates the Church, but the Church has a Helper. Listen for His Counsel.

Two opportunities to receive the help Jesus sent us:

A. Apply the Spirit's Help that is Available to You 16:4b-11

How does He help us?

He S_____ us from falling away v1.

He F_____ us from trying to go at it alone v7.

He empowers the P_____ E_____ v8-11.

B. Listen to the Holy Spirit's Counsel 16:12-15

The Holy Spirit is a Person not an object.
