This week I want to feature The Friendship Class. Long time member of FBCA, John Corbitt, teaches the class. John uses a curriculum called Master Class from which he teaches. His class is made up of varying ages. John's delightful personality is welcoming, and the class members mirror his warm spirit. The class is located in The Sunday School Hall, Room 203. In the class hangs a picture with these words, "We can't live the story if we don't know the story." I have noticed that everyone who attends this class faithfully attends Wednesday Night Bible Study as well. Friendship Class begins promptly every Sunday at 9:30 am.

Acts 2:1-13

Sunday, April 23, 2023

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

In the Book of Acts, Luke takes us on a journey led by the Holy Spirit. Commanded by Christ to wait on the Spirit, the disciples watch as Jesus ascends away from their sight to His Father in Heaven. Then suddenly the Spirit descends into the crowded upper room and baptizes them. This new beginning marks the empowering of God's Church.

A. God's Sovereign Timetable 2:1-4

"Sitting" was not the posture of prayer. We cannot manipulate the Spirit.

B. God's Diverse Church Family 2:5-13

Notice the span of their travels?

Sermon in a Sentence:

*The Church is baptized with the Holy Spirit. Show your
C_____ the power of God.*
