Church family,

In an effort to keep you and your family members safe, our Church Safety Team has made a couple of changes that will affect where you enter the church on Sunday mornings. Beginning Sunday, May 14, the back wooden door that leads into the Sunday School hallway will lock at 9:30. You will not be allowed to enter through that door unless a church member lets you in or you have a key. Moreover, the paned glass door that enters from the back parking lot by our ac units will also be locked at 9:30. If you enter from the back parking lot (the most northern lot on our campus), please enter through the double glass doors closest to the sanctuary.

These two changes come as a result of someone entering the church before Sunday School and asking for money from our members. This made our members very nervous. I fully support the Safety Team’s proactive actions. I know this will be difficult and a real pain to get used to. But I care about the safety of our members.
