Guarded by God's Great Mercy

1 Peter 1:1-9

Sunday, January 14, 2024

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Peter never intended for a Christian to thumb through his letter like junk mail. It was written for people who need to know how to survive the Christian life. It is not written for scholars. It was penned by a fisherman for people who were being tested because of their Christianity. Life is never easy for the Christian. But eternal life is promised to those who lean into Christ.

Sermon in a Sentence: Your future is guarded by God. Don't let any trial steal your joy.

1:1-2 Salvation Revealed; God is Merciful.

These two verses explain how a person is saved by God's mercy.

1:3-5 Salvation Secured; Christ is Our Treasure.

Peter encourages us by reminding us of our inheritance.

1:6-7 Salvation Purified; Trials are for Testing.

God is looking for dependable workers not necessarily gifted and educated.
