The Evil in the Tongue

James 3:1-12

Sunday, April 28, 2024

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Because of the subject of chapter 3 we might assume that James' readers were quarreling with one another. Perhaps the pressures of their trials have resulted in their verbal abuse of one another. Using a series of vivid illustrations that were common in his day, James underscores the evil in the tongue. To be able to control your tongue is a clear example of pure and useful religion.

*Sermon in a Sentence: Worthless religion is revealed in a reckless tongue.
Humble yourself before the Lord and He will help you.*

Three alarming facts about our tongue:

3:1-5a The Power of the Tongue

A warning to would-be teachers.

Illustrations of the power of the tongue.

3:5-8 The Deadly Poison of the Tongue

The tongue is a restless evil.

Illustrations of the destruction of the tongue.

3:9-12 The Hypocrisy of the Tongue

Ways we use our tongue in church.

Illustrations of the hypocrisy of the tongue.
