Church Family,
Our Honduras team leaves June 15 and will be on mission the 15th - 20th. The church and Lake Fork Marina is sending $3700 with them for food bags.
The mission team would like to give one Spanish Bible with every Food Bag to the families they meet door to door. Each Spanish Bible costs $6. That means 370
Spanish Bibles times $6 equals
$2,220.

On Sunday June 2 and Sunday
June 9, I would like to ask you to help me raise $2,220 so that every family receiving a Food Bag will receive the Gospel as well. Please make your checks to FBCA and mark your envelopes Honduras Bibles. Thank you for your help! Can you imagine the blessings you can make possible for so many lost souls in San Marcos de Colon, Honduras?
Pastor Kelly-

Guidance for the Graduates

Proverbs 3:1-10

Sunday, May 26, 2024

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

Genesis 1 reminds us that God created a well-ordered universe. Proverbs explains how we can live successfully in God's world. Proverbs 3 is deeply embedded in Israelite society. Mothers and fathers invested themselves in raising their children to know God. The protestant reformer, Martin Luther, used the Proverbs as a daily handbook. I hope this sermon helps our graduates to navigate their lives after graduation so that God brings them refreshing times.

Sermon in a Sentence: God wants to bring refreshing times to you, make Him the centerpiece of your life.

Four guidelines to navigating your life:

3:1-2 Guard what has been passed down to you.

The Jewish family and their sense of responsibility to one another.

"A steady drip breaks the stone."

3:3-4 Treat others with grace.

Steadfast love is the Hebrew word, 'chesed.'

If you lose credibility with your name, it will take years to earn it back.

3:5-8 Make God famous in your life.

Don't rely on your insight to life.

Harrison Butker is making God famous in his life.

3:9-10 Don't forget God on payday.

"God loves a cheerful giver" 2 Co. 9:7.

A tithe, one tenth of your earnings to the church you attend.
