How Can I Serve?

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Sunday, August 18, 2024

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

The Corinthians just could not pull themselves away from their past. This is one implication of spiritual immaturity. What about you? Have you made a clean break from the things in your past that are harmful to your walk with Christ in the present? Every member of the Corinthian church wanted to show off their spiritual gift. It was chaotic on any given Sunday. Their disorder proves that they were out of touch with the Holy Spirit. This chapter explains spiritual gifts and why God gives them to us.

Sermon in a Sentence: All true believers have been given a gift from Jesus to serve his/her local church. Don't just sit there, look for opportunities to serve.

1-3 Concerning Spiritual Gifting

Verse 1 It is the responsibility of church leaders to teach about spiritual gifts.

Verses 2-3 Most of them used to be under the control of mystical experiences.

4-11 For the Common Good of the Church Community

Verses 4-6 describe the Trinitarian nature of spiritual gifting.

Where do I start to discover my gift?
